

UCT ARCHAEOLOGY DEPARTMENTAL SEMINARS 2010

8 March. Nick Conard (University of Tübingen): The earliest musical tradition: New flutes from the caves of the Swabian Jura, southwestern Germany.

15 March. Andrew Kandel (University of Tübingen): The Early Upper Paleolithic Site of Aghitu-3 Cave in the Southern Caucasus, Armenia.

29 March. Foreman Bandama: The Archaeology and technology of metal production in the Late Iron Age of the southern Waterberg, Limpopo Province, South Africa.

14 April. Genevieve Dewar (University of Toronto): Adaptations to marginal environments in the MSA of Southern Africa: highlands and coastal deserts.

19 April. Tim Hart (ACO): Towards a mitigation strategy for Eskom's three nuclear power stations: a consultative seminar.

3 May. Tim Maggs: Slash-and-burn or sustained production? An example of agricultural intensification in precolonial South Africa.

10 May. Roman Roth (Classics, School of Languages and Literatures, UCT): Cultural Change in Roman Italy: a ceramic perspective.

17 May. Yonatan Chemere: An ethnoarchaeological study of variability in hoescraper morphology and use among the Hadiya of southern Ethiopia.

26 July. Heinz Ruther (Geomatics, UCT): The digital conservation of Africa's heritage sites

2 August. Judy Sealy: Cultural change, demography and the archaeology of the last 100,000 years in Southern Africa.

11 August. Thomas Thondhlana (Institute of Archaeology, Univ. College London): Palaborwa Revisited: Recent Archaeo-Metallurgy at Shankare Hill.

16 August. Nic Wiltshire: Western Cape Heritage Resources Management in Archaeology 2010: Lessons Learnt at Heritage Western Cape (HWC) and Some Suggestions for the Future.

23 August. Alan Morris (Human Biology, UCT): Reflections on demographics of Cape Town's underclass from graveyard skeletons.

30 August. Antonia Malan: Building traditions on the West Coast of South Africa: a review of knowledge, loss and potential.

13 September. Nigel Penn (History Dept, UCT): Hunter-gatherers and the pastoralist frontier: the Cape and Australia compared.

20 September. Simon Hall: Developing frontier projects in the Eastern Cape and Karoo.

27 September. Larissa Swedell (CUNY): A baboon model revisited: evolution of sociality in Papio hamadryas and Homo erectus.

4 October. Mariagrazia Galimberti: Investigating the use of oxygen isotopes in Turbo sarmaticus and Donax serra for marine palaeoenvironmental reconstruction during the Middle Stone Age in South Africa.

11 October. Pieter Jolly: The case for and against George Stow's having faked the 'blue ostriches' rock painting.

18 October. Will Archer: Middle Pleistocene bifacial technology: variability and adaptive benefits.

