The Association of South African Women in Science and Engineering (SA WISE)

SAWISE-ELEMENT SIX SCHOLARSHIP

Eligibility and conditions of award:
Awarded to a female student for full time study at Honours (4th year) level in Chemistry, Physics, Metallurgy or Mechanical Engineering at any South African University. Successful applicant should become actively involved in SAWISE. Element Six will arrange a visit to their research lab for the successful applicant, and they would like a copy of the awardee's major research project at the end of the year.

Value for 2010 : R15 000
How to apply
Please include with application:

- Curriculum Vitae with names of two referees
- One page motivation
- An official academic transcript (record)
- Name(s) of other bursaries/scholarships applied for and amount

Application deadline: 30 November annually

Send applications to:
SAWISE Element Six Scholarships committee
P O Box 34085, Rhodes Gift, 7707

Enquiries:
Prof. Jacquie Greenberg Jacquie.Greenberg@uct.ac.za
For more information about SAWISE: www.sawise.org.za
For more information about Element Six: www.e6.com